The United States Immigration laws apply equally to all persons not citizens of the United States on each occasion of their entry into the United States.

Every person desiring to enter the United States for any purpose whatever, even for a limited time, must have (1) a passport from the Government to which such person owes allegiance, and (2) a visa issued by an American Consular officer; excepting Canadians and British subjects having Canadian "Domicile" who may enter without passports under certain conditions (for details see below).

Visas are of two kinds: (1) Immigration visas, which are for permanent or indefinite residence in the United States, and (2) Non-immigration visas, which are for temporary entry into the United States for definite short periods for business, pleasure, transit through, et cetera.

In connection with an application for a non-immigrant visa, native born or naturalized British subjects who are legal permanent residents of the Dominion may present, in lieu of a valid passport, an expired British or Canadian passport, a valid or expired United States non-resident aliens' border crossing identification card, or a birth or Canadian naturalization certificate. A valid passport is required however in connection with all applications for consular immigration visas.

American citizens do not require passports to reenter the United States but must satisfy the immigration officials that they are in fact United States citizens. Any person who has been legally admitted to the United States but who has not become an American citizen, and who desires to visit outside the United States, should obtain a reentry permit or a resident alien's border crossing card from the immigration authorities before leaving the United States.

Border Crossing Regulations
CANADIAN CITIZENS AND BRITISH SUBJECTS HAVING "CANADIAN DOMICILE"

Canadian citizens may be admitted to the United States from Canada for a period of less than 6 months without passports, visas or border-crossing cards, if the purpose of their visit is business or pleasure, upon presenting to the United States Immigration Officer satisfactory evidence of their identity and citizenship.

British subjects domiciled in Canada may be admitted without passport or visa for a maximum period of 29 days.

Satisfactory evidence of identity and nationality would comprise Canadian or British passports, whether valid or expired, or a border crossing identification card issued subsequent to November 13, 1941, whether valid or expired, Canadian birth or baptismal certificates, or Canadian certificates of naturalization.

In addition, everyone should be in possession of evidence establishing that he is in fact a bona fide temporary visitor going for less than 6 months. Letters of reference from the applicant's employer or husband's employer, or bank manager if in business for self, are the most satisfactory. Those who cannot obtain one of the documents referred to above may call in person or write to the nearest U.S. Consulate or U.S. Immigration and Naturalization Service Office for further information. American consulates are located in Canada at the following places: Calgary and Edmonton, Alta; Vancouver and Victoria, B.C.; Winnipeg, Man.; St. John, N.B.; Halifax, N.S.; Hamilton, Niagara Falls, Toronto, Ottawa, and Windsor, Ont.; Montreal and Quebec City, Quebec; and Regina, Sask. Offices of the United States Immigration and Naturalization Service are located in all large cities in the United States; at all border ports of entry to the United States; and IN CANADA at the following places: Sidney, Vancouver, and Victoria, B.C.; Winnipeg, Man.; St. John, N.B.; Halifax, N.S.; Toronto, Ont.; Montreal and Quebec, City, P.Q.

CANADIAN PASSPORT INFORMATION

Passports are issued in Canada at the Passport Office, Department of External Affairs, Ottawa.

They are good for five years and are renewable for one period of five years. Fee for a passport is $5.00 and for renewal $2.00.

Passports already issued continue to be valid until the date on which they expire, and may be renewed if issued less than ten years ago.

Canadians travelling to the United States for six months or less do not need a passport.

Canadians travelling to the United States for more than six months must have a visa from a United States Consul.

Canadians travelling to other countries must have a visa from the Consul of the country in question placed on their Canadian passports.

Canadians travelling anywhere outside Canada may need a travel permit from the Foreign Exchange Control Board. See elsewhere on this page.

Canadians wishing to travel in or through the occupied countries (Germany, Austria, Japan, Korea) must have military permits for which application should be made to the Department of External Affairs, Ottawa.

British subjects, who are not Canadians should make application for passports or renewal to the High Commissioners for their countries in Ottawa.

Canadians in British Commonwealth countries may obtain passports or renewals at the Offices of the High Commissioners for Canada in the respective countries.

Canadians in other countries may procure passports or obtain renewals at the nearest Canadian Embassy, Legation or Consulate.

FOREIGN EXCHANGE CONTROL ACT REGULATIONS RE FOREIGN CURRENCY

Residents of Canada

Under the Foreign Exchange Control Act, every resident of Canada, other than a chartered bank, who owns or possesses foreign exchange or is entitled to a right to immediate payment of foreign exchange is required to offer it for sale to a bank in Canada. The only exceptions are that foreign banknotes and coin having a value not exceeding $10 in the ownership or possession of a resident, and foreign exchange acquired or held by a resident pursuant to a regulation or permit, need not be sold to a bank. Similarly, a resident is required to apply to a bank in Canada, or other agent of the Foreign Exchange Control Board, for any foreign exchange he requires. United States citizens who are permanent residents of Canada are regarded as residents of Canada for purposes of exchange control but a resident who is a citizen of the United States and not also a British subject may apply to the Foreign Exchange Control Board for certain limited exemption from the provisions of the Act and Regulations.

Non-residents of Canada—Tourists

In general, Canadian dollar bank balances in Canada of non-residents may be withdrawn in Canadian funds only, and foreign currency is not furnished at the official rates of exchange in Canada. Income from Canadian sources such as bank interest, interest and dividends on Canadian securities, net salaries earned in Canada and net rentals on property owned in Canada may be remitted to non-residents in foreign currency. In so far as foreign exchange control is concerned, non-resident tourists may enter or leave Canada freely, but may not take more currency out of Canada than they brought in.

Travel Outside of Canada
United States

On application to a Canadian bank or other agent of the Foreign Exchange Control Board, a resident of Canada may obtain up to $150 per annum in U.S. dollars for expenses in connection with travel to the United States and other non-sterling area countries. In addition a resident may obtain up to $10 U.S. per month in U.S. dollars for visits to the United States on which he will not be taking out of Canada more than a total of $25 including not more than $10 in U.S. currency. Where the travel is necessary for genuine health or educational reasons, the traveller may obtain more than the annual allotment of $150 in U.S. dollars. Any reasonable amounts of U.S. dollars may be obtained for business travel.

Sterling Area

For travel expenditures in sterling area countries such as the United Kingdom and British West Indies, applications are normally approved for any reasonable amounts of sterling or transfers of Canadian dollars.

Travel Permit

A travel permit on Form H must be obtained from the bank or other agent and surrendered to Customs at the time a resident traveller is leaving Canada unless the total value of banknotes, coin and travellers' cheques in the travellers' possession does not exceed $25 and not more than $10 of the total is foreign banknotes and coin and travellers' cheques payable in foreign currency.

NATIONAL CONVENTION

Elections to a National Convention were held in 1946 which Convention in 1948 made recommendations to His Majesty's Government in Great Britain as to the possible forms of future government to be submitted to the people at a National referendum. Two referenda were held, one in June and the second in July of 1948. In the first referendum three forms of Government submitted to the people were: Commission of Government for a period of five years; Confederation with Canada; and Responsible Government as it existed in 1933 prior to the establishment of Commission of Government. No one form of Government received a clear majority of the votes polled, Commission of Government being eliminated. In the second referendum the people were asked to choose between Confederation with Canada and Responsible Government, and in this referendum Confederation with Canada received a plurality of the votes cast, and the Government of Canada has expressed its willingness to accept Newfoundland as the tenth Province. The Government of Canada have informed the Commission of Government that, in their opinion, it would not be practicable to effect Union before the 31st March, 1949. The Government of Newfoundland agree with this view.

The duties of the members of the National Convention were discharged on January 30, 1948, when His Excellency the Administrator formally closed the Convention.

COURTS AND JUDGES—ONTARIO

The Supreme Court consists of two Branches, viz. The Court of Appeal and The High Court of Justice.

The Court of Appeal hears appeals from decisions of the High Court and of the lower courts.

The High Court of Justice hears various cases, criminal and civil, and has a wider jurisdiction than the lower courts. A trial judge sits several times each year in the various counties and judicial districts.

The next lower Courts are the County and District Courts and the Division Courts.

One of the County Court Judges in every County is also the Surrogate Judge. The Surrogate Courts deal with wills, and estates of deceased persons.

Appeals may be taken in certain cases, from the Supreme Court of Ontario to the Supreme Court of Canada, and from County, District and Division Courts to the Court of Appeal.

The Exchequer Court of Canada tries cases with which the Crown is concerned, admiralty matters, patents, copyrights, trade marks, Dominion Revenue, railways under the authority of the Parliament of Canada, and railways not wholly within one Province, and disputes between Provinces.

There is an Ontario branch of the Exchequer Court, known as the Ontario Admiralty District.

SUMMARY OF MUNICIPALITIES IN ONTARIO

At the close of 1947

Cities (Counties 23, Districts 5)	28
Towns (Separated from County)	7
Towns (Counties 93, Districts 46)	139
Village (Counties 146, Districts 10)	156
Townships (Counties 429, Districts 143)	572
Improvement Districts (Counties 1, Districts 9)	12
Total Local Municipalities	914
Counties (43)	38
Total Incorporated Municipalities	952

There are 43 Counties, some of which are united for purposes of local government as follows:
Leeds and Grenville,
Northumberland and Durham,
Prescott and Russell,
Stormont, Dundas and Glengarry.

The northern portion of the Province of Ontario is divided into 11 Districts and the southern portion into 43 Counties. The union of the following counties, Leeds-Grenville, Northumberland-Durham, Prescott-Russell and Stormont-Dundas and Glengarry reduces the county administrations to 38 distinct units for local government. The districts, unlike counties, are not organized for municipal purposes and as a result, the 211 incorporated municipalities contained therein are not united for municipal administration.

With the exception of the 23 cities and the 7 separated towns which are located within counties, the remaining 670 local municipalities in counties are united for administration in the counties of which they form part. This relationship is for the purpose of the administration of inter-related interests such as education, roads, welfare and administration of justice. Members of the County Councils are composed of the reeves of all the local municipalities within the county and in certain cases the deputy reeves.

The 7 separated towns are: Brockville, Gananoque, Ingersoll, Prescott, St. Mary's, Smith's Falls, Trenton.

POLICE VILLAGES

In addition to the organized villages listed elsewhere in the Ontario section of the Canadian Almanac, there are some 181 police villages.

A police village is run by a Board of Trustees elected by the residents. The Board of Trustees runs its local affairs, but cannot levy any taxes or make by-laws which involve the borrowing of money. It has to send in a requisition to the authorities of the township of which it is part for any finances it requires, such as for local improvements or lighting or village constabulary.

RULE

Divide the cost (invoice price with freight added) by the figure in the column of "net rate per cent profit desired" on the line with per cent it cost you to do business.

EXAMPLE:

If a wagon costs........................	$60.00
Freight..............................	1.20
	$61.20
You desire to make a net profit of.....	5%
It costs you to do business..................	19%
Take the figure in column 5 on line with 19 which is 76

76/61.2000/$80.50 = the selling price
608

380
200

The percentage of cost of doing business and profit are figured on selling price.

THE NATIONAL GALLERY OF CANADA, OTTAWA

Board of Trustees—Rt. Hon. Vincent Massey, C.H.; Chairman, H. S. Southam, C.M.G.; Jean Chauvin; Robert Newton, M.C., Ph.D.

Director, H. O. McCurry.

Curator of Canadian Art, R. H. Hubbard, Ph.D.

Open every day except Christmas Day. Monday to Friday, 10 a.m. to 5 p.m., Saturday, 10 a.m. to 5 p.m., Sunday, 2 to 5 p.m.

Founded in 1880. The collections consist of Canadian, British and European paintings, sculpture, drawings, prints and other works of art acquired by means of annual grants voted by Dominion Parliament and by gifts from various benefactors. In 1910 the National Gallery of Canada Act (3-4 Geo. V. c. 33) was passed constituting an incorporated Board of Trustees for the management of the Gallery, the administration of its grants and for the encouragement of art generally throughout the Dominion.

In promoting this last part of its policy the National Gallery will lend to any public art body or society in Canada, which possesses the necessary facilities, a selection of Canadian paintings for any period up to one year. Loan exhibitions of the best contemporary paintings, drawings and prints, both Canadian and foreign are also arranged by the Gallery and shown across Canada in all the leading cities.

Colour reproductions of important works in the permanent collection suitable for framing and for use in schools bring the benefits of the National Gallery to every part of the country. Written lectures on different phases of art, with accompanying films or slides, are sent free except for transportation costs to any study group in Canada.

THE NATIONAL MUSEUM OF CANADA, OTTAWA

The National Museum of Canada originated in the Geological Survey of Canada, which was founded in 1842 by Sir William Logan. Authority to designate it the "National Museum of Canada" was given by Order-in-Council P.C. 2615 of January 5, 1927. Formerly it was designated the Victoria Memorial Museum.

The National Museum exhibits collections illustrating the natural history of the Dominion; its Geology, Mineralogy, Palaeontology, Biology and Anthropology. The study collections which number over 18,000 mammals, 30,000 birds, over 4,800 lots of amphibians and reptiles, and smaller collections of fishes and marine and fresh water invertebrates are open to research by properly qualified students and certain classes of specimens, e.g., birds and mammals are available for loan under restriction. The Museum has a large collection of photographs of Indian and Eskimo life, birds, etc. Photographs, prints, lantern slides and motion picture films may be obtained at very moderate prices, or on loan.

Vincent Massey, C.H.; Beverley Matthews, C.B.E., K.C.; Colonel W. E. Phillips, C.B.E., D.S.O., M.C., B.A.Sc.; Sidney E. Smith, M.A., LL.D.; Miss Helen Reynar, Secretary to the Board.

Royal Ontario Museum of Archaeology—Professor G. Brett, M.C., M.A., Director; Professor T. F. McIlwraith, M.A., F.R.A.I., F.R.S.C., Associate Director and Keeper of the Department of Ethnology; Professor H. E. Fernald, A.B., Keeper of the East Asiatic Department; Professor J. W. Graham, M.A., Ph.D., J.H.U., Keeper of the Greek and Roman Department; F. St. G. Spendlove, Keeper of the Modern European Department; Professor the Rev. R. J. Williams, M.A., B.D., Keeper of the Near Eastern Department; Miss Betty Maw, Keeper of the Textile Department.

The Museum possesses large collections that show the primitive skills of the palaeolithic, neolithic, copper and bronze ages; the early grain civilizations are illustrated in galleries of Babylonian and Egyptian objects. An historical European sequence is contained in galleries devoted to the Greek and Roman collections, including a fine collection of Greek vases, and to the mediaeval and modern periods, including arms and armour, ceramics and glass woodwork and furniture, textiles, embroideries and lace. The Far Eastern collection is of great importance, with stress laid on Chinese bronzes and ceramics, and on Japanese material. There is a large Ethnological collection, especially of American Indian material. The Museum includes a collection of Japanese prints and the Sigmund Samuel Canadiana Collection.

The collections have been formed to teach as far as possible the history of mechanical work, and to be a stimulus to the modern worker.

Royal Ontario Museum of Geology and Mineralogy—Professor E. S. Moore M.A., Ph.D., F.R.S.C., Director; Professor V. B. Meen, M.A., Ph.D., Associate Director; Professor A. L. Parsons, B.A., F.R.S.C., Director Emeritus of Mineralogy.

The museum occupies two galleries. The exhibits in the north gallery are partly arranged on an economic basis, sections being devoted to ores, fuels, ceramics, building stones, abrasives, refractories, etc. Especial attention has been directed to building and ornamental stones; copper, nickel, radium, silver and gold ores, Canadian coals, etc. The geology of famous mining regions is illustrated by mine models and suites of specimens. There are models of an oil field and oil well with working pump. Glacial geology has received much consideration; striated surfaces, striated stones, and tillites are represented from all the known Ice ages and from all parts of the world. Dynamic and Structural Geology are well represented by numerous specimens and models, and there is a large collection of water colour paintings of glacial features.

The south gallery contains an unusually complete series of minerals from all parts of the world as well as a special collection of Canadian minerals; collections of cut gems, crystals, meteorites, rocks; and a special series to illustrate the mineral association found in deposits of gold, silver, lead, zinc, radium and nickel, as well as certain non-metallic series. Among the popular exhibits are a reconstructed crystal cave and a collection to show the fluorescence of minerals.

A large part of these collections has been presented by persons connected with the mining industry.

Royal Ontario Museum of Palaeontology—Professor L. S. Russell, M.A., Ph.D., F.R.S.C., Director; Professor Madeleine A. Fritz, M.A., Ph.D., F.R.S.C., Associate Director.

The museum contains extensive series of Invertebrate fossils arranged to illustrate the anatomy and classification of the different zoological branches, and to indicate the important faunas of the geological ages. Vertebrate fossils are represented by numerous reptiles and by an excellent collection of mammals and fishes. The mounted skeletons of dinosaurs from Alberta are a feature of especial importance. Fossil plants are shown by good series of Carboniferous, Cretaceous, and Interglacial forms. The collections contain, also, a special Canadian series designed for the use of students of Canadian geology.

Much unique material is included in the exhibits, and numerous type specimens of particular value, e.g. Matthew's types of Cambrian fossils from eastern Canada and type dinosaurs from the Cretaceous formations of Alberta.

The walls of the galleries of invertebrate palaeontology are decorated with an elaborate series of paintings portraying successive stages in the development of the earth. They emphasize particularly the animals and plants of past ages.

Royal Ontario Museum of Zoology—Professor J. R. Dymond, M.A., F.R.S.C., O.B.E., Director; Lester L. Snyder, Assistant Director; F. A. Urquhart, Ph.D., M.A., Assistant Director.

The exhibits are arranged in two galleries, one showing a representative series of animals foreign to Canada; the other, a fairly complete series of Canadian vertebrate animals and representative series of invertebrates. In the introductory portion of the Canadian gallery special exhibits are arranged including realistic reproductions of scenes showing animals as they are found in nature.

Aside from the Museum's teaching exhibits, it possesses extensive study collections. These are richest in Canadian forms but the bird collection includes that of the late J. H. Fleming representing birds of the world; consequently the Museum holds a position of importance with its store for ornithological research.

Division of Museum Extension—E. C. Cross, Chief; Miss Catherine Steele, M.A., Supervisor, Education Section.

This Division has been organized to enlarge the Museum's service to the public in all fields. More extensive co-operation with schools is being put into effect, and an adult education program of afternoon and evening courses is under way. Through this Division the Museum will offer travelling collections and other services to outlying parts of the Province.

FOREIGN EXCHANGE QUOTATIONS

The following are nominal quotations, based on rates available in London or New York and converted into Canadian terms at the mid-rate for sterling or par for United States Dollars, as furnished by the Foreign Exchange Division of the Bank of Canada. These quotations may be found useful in considering statistics and prices generally, but Canadian exporters are reminded that the kinds of currency which may be accepted for exports to different countries are specifically covered by the Foreign Exchange Control Act and Regulations and that funds may sometimes be tendered in payment for exports, which cannot, in fact, be transferred to Canada. Both importers and exporters are advised to communicate with their bankers before completing financial arrangements for the sale or purchase of commodities, to ensure that the method of payment contemplated is not only possible but that it is in accordance with the Foreign Exchange Control Act and Regulations.

These regularly organized congregations are in the larger cities and towns, but there are many other Christian Scientists in Canada residing where Churches have not yet been organized. As a whole, the Christian Science denomination in Canada is not separately organized. Each church is a branch of The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Massachusetts, The Mother Church of the Christian Science denomination, but each church has its own self-government. In each province, there is a Christian Science Committee on Publication, while in the larger cities and towns there are public practitioners of Christian Science, the number of such practitioners in Canada being at present about 250. The Christian Science denomination has no ordained clergy, but each church has two Readers who are elected for stated terms from among the members, and who conduct its services. Each church also maintains a public Reading Room, where the authorized literature of the denomination may be found. In 1938 the first college organization in Canada was established and is known as "Christian Science Organization" at the University of Toronto. The total number of adherents in Canada, per Census 1941, was 20,222. Communications should be addressed to Wm. D. THE RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

QUAKERS

The Religious Society of Friends originated in England in the 17th Century. Its distinctive Christian witness has been based on what has been called "The Inner Light". Quakers believe that "there is something of God in every man", and that human personality is of great importance. From this conviction arises the Quaker way of worship and the well-known interest in peace, penal reform, and other questions involving the use of goodwill in overcoming evil.

There are three branches of the Society in Canada—the "Hicksite" Friends, "Orthodox" Friends and the "Wilburite" or "Conservative" Friends. Total membership of the three groups is about 1100. The three Yearly Meetings hold joint and concurrent sessions at the end of June at Pickering College, Newmarket, Ontario. Presiding Clerk: Howard W. Clayton, Norwich, Ontario.

GENESEE YEARLY MEETING (HICKSITE)

Genesee Yearly Meeting is composed of members in both Canada and New York State. The Yearly Meeting was organized in 1834. Clerk: Mable B. THE SYNAGOGUE IN CANADA

The Jews of Canada number 168,367 (Census 1941). There is no federation of synagogues in Canada. Each synagogue is autonomous, is responsible to no superiors, affiliated with no hierarchy. Any group of Jews may form a synagogue, which does not necessarily require the services of a rabbi, any individual being eligible to lead in the recital of prayers.

There are three tendencies evident in Judaism—orthodox, conservative and reform. The orthodox tendency parallels the fundamentalist movement in Christianity; the reform tendency is modernism in Judaism; the conservative tendency is the middle movement.

The Holy Blossom Synagogue of Toronto, the Temple Emanu-El of Montreal, and the Anshe Sholom Synagogue of Hamilton are affiliated with the Union of American Hebrew Congregations, the federation of reform synagogues. The Shaar Hashomayim Synagogue of Montreal, the Goel Tzedec of Toronto the Adath Israel Congregation of Montreal and Beth Israel of Vancouver are affiliated with the United Synagogue of America (conservative). Most of the Canadian congregations are unaffiliated with any parent organization. These parent organizations have no authority over their constituent members.

Some external innovations of the reform group are worshipping without hats, the use of mixed choir and organ, the institution of a Sunday morning service (only at Holy Blossom Synagogue, Toronto) in addition to the Saturday morning service, the reading of prayers in English as well as in Hebrew, the addition of a sermon in English, and the sitting of men and women together. English prayers and sermons are also given in conservative synagogues. Most synagogues have religious schools. Some of these schools have sessions on Saturday and Sunday, and others on week days after public school hours. Among the leading synagogues of Canada are:

Toronto, Ont.—Holy Blossom Synagogue (reform) Bathurst St. at Ava Rd.; Rabbi, Abraham L. Feinberg.

The President and Vice-President are elected for a four-year term (which ends at noon of January 20th) by a college of electors who are chosen by direct vote of the citizens in every state; the voting takes place on the Tuesday after the first Monday in November in every fourth (usually leap) year. Following this election the electors meet and give their votes at the respective state capitals on the first Monday after the second Wednesday in December. The votes of the electors are opened and counted in the presence of both Houses of Congress on the 6th day of January. In actual practice, however, the electors invariably vote unanimously for their political party's nominees for President and Vice-President although there is no constitutional requirement compelling them to do so. As soon, therefore, as the popular votes in the November election are counted in each State, the results are made public, and thus the names of the President and Vice-President can readily be forecast.

The Statutory Salary of the President is $75,000 a year; $25,000 a year is also allowed the President for official entertainment expenses. The Salary is subject to statutory taxes.

Forms of Address.—The President is addressed in diplomatic correspondence: His Excellency; The Vice-President, Honourable. In ordinary correspondence: My dear Mr. President, or, more formally, To the President; or, Hon. —— ——, President.

UNITED STATES CABINET

Secretary of State— Dean Acheson
Secretary of the Treasury—John W. Snyder, of Missouri.
Secretary of Defense—James Forrestal, of New York.
Attorney General—Tom C. Clark, of Texas.
Postmaster General—Jesse M. Donaldson, of Missouri.
Secretary of the Interior—Julius A. Krug, of Wisconsin.
Secretary of Agriculture—Charles F. Brannan, of Colorado.
Secretary of Commerce—Charles Sawyer, of Ohio.
Secretary of Labor—Maurice J. Tobin, of Massachusetts.

The Executive power is vested in the President, who appoints the Cabinet.

THE UNITED STATES CONGRESS

The Legislative power is vested in the United States Congress which consists of two houses: the Senate and the House of Representatives. The Senate consists of two Members from each State, elected for six years, one-third retiring every two years. The House of Representatives is elected for two years, each State choosing one or more representatives according to population. The period of a Congress is thus two years, a newly elected House of Representatives beginning its term and one-third of the Senators retiring at the same time. Congress must assemble at least once each year. Members of both Houses receive salaries of $12,500 a year with $2,500 expense account, plus allowances for travelling and clerical help. The last Congressional elections were held November 4, 1948.

This Department conducts regular university courses for teachers and special students, correspondence courses and summer sessions in subjects leading to the Permanent First Class Teachers' Certificate, the general B.A. degree, and the B.A. degree for teachers of elementary schools.

It carries on also a Summer School at Trois Pistoles, Quebec, where courses in the two official languages of the Dominion, English and French, are offered. The courses in French are from elementary to university standard. Those in English (Basic English), are general in nature and are intended for non-English speaking Canadians. Special courses in English for teachers are given in collaboration with the Provincial Secretary's Department, Province of Quebec.

The Department also provides regular University credit courses in a number of centres throughout Western and Central Ontario and offers in this area non-credit courses and many lectures on specialized topics to various groups and organizations. A lecture bureau makes available lectures by staff members.

The Summer School in conjunction with the Western Ontario Conservatory of Music and the London Little Theatre operates a Summer School of Fine Arts offering courses in music, art, the theatre and archaeology.

THE CANADIAN FEDERATION OF LABOUR

The Canadian Federation of Labour is defined in its constitution as "a fraternity of autonomous all-Canadian unions, equal in status, in no way subordinate one to another, ... bound together by a common desire to defend and preserve the economic liberty of the workers".

Established in 1902 as the National Trades & Labour Congress of Canada, the Federation adopted its present name in 1908. In 1927, in a merger of several organizations it became known as the All-Canadian Congress of Labour, but it emerged again as the Federation in 1936.

The aggregate membership of the Federation is 53,600. The Federation leaves to the affiliated unions the publication of their own statistics. For this reason, the statistics usually furnished by governmental agencies are far from complete.

25. COMBINE CLAUSE

1. Whenever from or as a result of a judgment of the Supreme Court, or Exchequer Court of Canada, or of any superior court, or circuit, district or county court in Canada, it appears to the satisfaction of the Governor-in-Council, that with regard to any article of commerce there exists any conspiracy, combination, agreement or arrangement of any kind among manufacturers of such articles, or dealers therein to unduly promote the advantage of the manufacturers or dealers at the expense of the consumers, the Governor-in-Council may admit the article free of duty, or so reduce the duty thereon as to give to the public the benefit of reasonable competition in the article, if it appears to the Governor-in-Council that such disadvantage to the consumer is facilitated by the duties of Customs imposed on a like article.

26. MARKING OF IMPORTED GOODS

The Governor-in-Council may from time to time order imported goods to be marked so as to indicate the country of origin.

Under this provision, the following classes of goods imported into Canada, shall be thus marked or labelled in legible English or French words, and such markings shall be as nearly indelible or permanent as possible, viz.:—

Printed or lithographed matter of all kinds, including books and pictures.

Seals, tickets or labels, irrespective of dimensions when imported in packages or coverings or in strips, sheets or rolls, in quantities in excess of 100 units are subject to the general marking regulations and each seal, ticket or label is required to be marked.

Seals, tickets or labels, exceeding one inch in their greatest dimension whether imported in packages or in strips, sheets or rolls, perforated or otherwise prepared for ready separation into single units, or intended to be used in such single units, must be marked with a satisfactory indication of the country of origin on each single unit. The above when not exceeding one inch, when imported in packages containing not more than 100 each, or in strips or rolls of not more than 100 units, may be marked with a satisfactory indication of the country of origin on the first package or on each strip or roll.

Decalcomania or dry transfers, not including ceramic or enamel transfer, are required to be marked with an indication of the country of origin as printed or lithographed matter. Such marking may be affixed on the back or carrier portion thereof, or on each sheet or roll, in the case of dry transfers, on the package in which such transfers are contained, when marking on the sheet or roll is impracticable.

Decalcomania transfers, imported for advertising and display, will be required to be marked with an indication of the country of origin on the face thereof as heretofore; marking on the back or carrier portion will not be accepted.

Decalcomania transfers known as toy transfers may be marked on each sheet, each book or package.

Imported ceramic or enamel transfers are not required to be marked with an indication of the country of origin.

Blind embossed or die stamped indication of the country of origin on printed or lithographed matter imported into Canada will be acceptable as satisfactory provided the marking otherwise complies with the requirements, particularly as to location, legibility, permanency and wording.

Ordinary printed or lithographed paper or other coverings, wrappers or containers, used merely to cover or contain shipments of goods consigned to Canada, are not required to be marked with an indication of the country of origin.

Printed or lithographed containers imported to contain goods for export, and printed or lithographed labels, stickers or wrappers, imported to be attached to goods manufactured or produced in Canada for export trade, may be exempted from the provisions of Section 16 of the Customs Tariff Act, provided the importer signs a certificate on the face of each entry as follows:

"The containers, labels, stickers or wrappers, described on this entry are imported bona fide by the undersigned to contain or to be attached to goods for export, and will be exported with such goods."

Imported containers, labels or wrappers, printed or lithographed, intended to be filled with or used upon domestic products may be marked in such a manner as to indicate the origin of the goods in their condition as imported, for example: "Label printed by John Jones, New York," thereby avoiding an improper imputation of origin in respect of the Canadian manufactured goods with which such imported containers, labels or wrappers are used.

Printed or lithographed matter, imported in single copies, unbound, for the use of the importer and not for sale, for religious, philosophical, educational, scientific or literary purposes, or for the encouragement of the fine arts, may be delivered without being marked with an indication of the country of origin.

Books may be marked on the inside or outside of the front or back cover, the first or last page, or the title page.

Writing, marking or drawing pencils of all kinds pen holders of wood, and fountain pens.

Blind embossed or die-stamped indications of the country of origin on wooden or fibre lead pencils and penholders will only be accepted (1) on plain unpainted pencils and penholders without any other lettering thereon, when legible (2) on plain painted pencils and penholders without lettering thereon, when the combination of colours used in the die-stamping and on the pencil or penholder does not result in an indistinct or illegible indication, and (3) on pencils and penholders with lettering or other printed matter thereon, when the indication appears on the pencil or penholder in the same coloured lettering as the other printed matter. The indication on pencils must not be within one inch of an end which is or may be pointed.

Crayons or chalk, covered with wood, paper or other covering as a holder or for protection, are each required to be marked. Uncovered crayons or chalk may be marked on the first or immediate container.

Fountain pens, and pencils other than wooden or fibre lead pencils, may be marked with blind embossed or die-stamped indications of the country of origin in accordance with the general regulations, provided such marking otherwise complies with the requirements, particularly as to legibility, location, permanence and wording.

Empty paper or paper board folding or set up boxes or cartons, and empty plain or corrugated fibre or fibre board boxes, for use as containers.

Paper bags. Glassine bags subject to marking.

Toilet paper in rolls or interfold packages.

Greeting cards imported in boxes or packages with envelopes in equal quantity to match, each greeting card shall be satisfactorily marked, envelopes not required to show the indication of country of origin.

Chinaware and porcelainware (not including sanitary or toiletware), decorated or undecorated, as follows:

(i) articles commonly used in connection with the serving of food or drink; or intended or designed for household use for ornamental or decorative purposes;
(ii) kitchenware and utensils;
(iii) heraldic and souvenir ware.

Chinaware and porcelainware must be marked on each piece, except in instances where a lid or cover accompanies a pot, bowl or dish, in which case the lid or cover need not be marked where the pot, bowl or dish itself bears an indication of the country of origin.

An indication of the country of origin will not be accepted as complying with the requirements as to permanency if, although otherwise satisfactory, the marking has been accomplished by means of painting or stamping after the articles have been kiln-fired in the process of manufacture, and payment of additional duty of 10 per cent will be required in respect of all such goods.

With respect to chinaware and porcelainware, the Department will accept the name of the country alone as a satisfactory indication of the country of origin, and will also accept the name of the manufacturing or producing firm accompanied by the country of origin, without the inclusion of the city or province in that country in which the manufacturer or producer is located. In the case of chinaware and porcelainware, the words "Made in," "Produced in," or words of similar import are not required.

(See also paragraph commencing "Any goods," etc. under "Prohibited Goods." p. 757.)

In cases where a non-resident sportsman desires to leave Canada before the game arrives at a Customs Port of Exit, the Export Entry and declaration may be made by such sportsman and left with the Collector of National Revenue at the Port of Exit for use when the game arrives at the said port.

The exportation of deer in the carcass or parts thereof, being the property of a provincial government, may be permitted without the declaration provided in Section 4 hereof upon the Collector of National Revenue or other officer of Customs being furnished with a certificate signed by a duly authorized officer of the provincial government concerned to the effect that the deer or parts thereof proposed to be exported are the property of the provincial government.

Any person who wishes to export any carcass or parts thereof of deer raised or bred upon his own land, or upon lands owned by a Company or association of persons of which he is a member, shall make affidavit upon the face of the export entry to the effect that the deer, the carcass or parts whereof is so entered for exportation, was raised or bred upon his own lands or upon lands owned or held by a company or association of persons of which he is a member (describing the location of such lands, and naming the association or company holding the same).

CUSTOMS PROCEDURE, ETC.

EXPORTING TO THE UNITED STATES

The customs laws of the United States, governing the importation of goods, very materially differ from ours. They have no such thing as the manifesting system such as we have, and all merchandise is supposed to be entered at the first port of arrival. However, they have ports termed I.T. Ports (immediate transport ports) to which goods may be forwarded in bond, without appraisement at the frontier port. In this case the goods must be carefully marked "Forwarded in Bond."

Merchandise, in order to be entered under Immediate Transportation, without appraisement at the frontier, must be destined to a designated immediate transportation port, and must be billed via a port at which merchandise may be entered for transportation to another port without appraisement.

These ports through which goods must be billed and to which they must be consigned may be learned from the transportation company as the lists are too extensive to be given space here.

If goods are destined for a foreign country they are entirely under Transportation and Exportation entry in bond, in transit, for exportation from the seaboard port.

EXPORTING TO OTHER COUNTRIES

Exporters requiring information regarding invoice forms and Customs Regulations of other countries, applying to goods exported from Canada, should write to Department of Trade and Commerce, Ottawa.

GIFTS TO THOSE ON ACTIVE SERVICE

To be exported as gifts, addressed to members of the armed forces of the British Empire or their Allies, do not require a permit to export.

GOODS TO BE RETURNED TO THE U.S.

Merchants finding it necessary to return goods not according to order and wishing to obtain refund of duty will be required to make out four different forms to accompany the way bill when goods are shipped back. If shipment is over $100.00 the forms are as follow:

1. "Foreign Owner's Oath" or "Oath of American Manufacture."
2. American Consular Certificate.
3. Export papers in triplicate.
4. One certified copy of Customs Incoming Manifest.

F.E.C.B. export permit—5 copies.

Where shipment is under $100.00 the American Consular Certificate and Incoming Manifest are not required.

The intending consignee must send to the U.S. shipper for an affidavit on a prescribed form, mentioned above as the Oath of American Manufacture, declaring the goods to be of United States origin or manufacture, in order that the goods when returned may pass the U.S. Customs without duty.

When this affidavit is received it must be attached to the way bill by the transportation agent here and forwarded along with the goods. This will enable the United States Customs Officer at the frontier to recognize the goods as home manufacture and have them forwarded on to destination without duty. The original U.S. shipper may secure these forms at his Customs, but a better way is for the intending consignee to secure a copy from the local express agent here and forward same to the U.S firm with all necessary explanation as to line of procedure and thus avoid possible delay.

The American Consular Certificate forms must be obtained from the nearest American Consul, who will send blank forms in triplicate. These must be filled in as required and returned to the American Consul with his fee, when he will return one copy to the intending consignee, who will attach same to way bill with other documents mentioned.

Export entry, procurable from Customs Department, must be made out by consignee in triplicate and attached to way bill together with the Foreign Owner's Oath, Consular Certificate and Incoming Manifest. One copy will remain on file at the port of exit, the second copy goes to the Customs Department and the third copy will be returned by the Customs officer at the Canadian port of exit to the merchant who returned the goods. He will then attach it to the refund of duty claim along with a copy of the way bill as a guarantee that the goods have been returned.

Goods must be in Customs custody within six months of date of importation.

CURRENCY CERTIFICATE OF INVOICE

Importers should, when ordering goods from Britain or any foreign country, instruct the exporter or salesman to always give the value of the goods in the home consumption column of the invoice and to show the same in the currency of the country of export.

Internal taxes should be definitely stated.

The exporter should also be very carefully instructed to place on the invoice the currency certificate.

In respect of invoices of goods from Great Britain or from any country where the currency has not substantially depreciated, the certificate of the exporter, showing the relative value of the paper currency in standard currency is accepted.

In other cases where the currency has substantially depreciated, there must be furnished a certificate, signed by a Consul or a Canada Trade Commissioner, or of a Bank, in the following form:—

CERTIFICATE OF CONSUL

Date......................

I certify that at the date of exportation of the goods described in the within or annexed invoice, the true value of the currency, in which the invoice is made out, as compared with the standard dollar of Canada, is at the rate of........................
(Dollars and Cents)
per..........................
(Here give the unit of currency of Invoice).
Signed.......................

GOODS SHORT LANDED

In the case of goods duty paid and short received, delivery of same upon subsequent arrival can be obtained, without payment of duty anew, only when the following regulations are observed:—

(a) Notice of the short receipt of goods must be given to the collector in writing within thirty days of entry.

(b) If the goods have been omitted from the shipment, a declaration to that effect must be produced from the exporter.

(c) If a portion of the consignment has been delayed in transit by the carriers, a declaration to this effect will be required from the latter.

(d) No portion of a consignment of goods, duty-paid, in respect of which a short shipment occurs, is to be disposed of by the importer until the appraiser has had an opportunity of checking over the goods.

SETTLERS' EFFECTS ENTRY

Settlers' effects are admitted duty free, if actually owned abroad by the settler for at least six months before his removal to Canada, and subject to regulations prescribed by the Minister.

Provided that any dutiable article entered as settlers' effects may not be so entered unless brought by the settler on his first arrival, and shall not be sold or otherwise disposed of without payment of duty until after twelve months' actual use in Canada.

Settlers' effects, viz:—Machines and implements for agricultural purposes, moved by mechanical power, and motor vehicles valued at not more than one thousand dollars, and boats for fishing purposes, if actually owned abroad by the settler for at least six months before his removal to Canada, are free subject to regulations prescribed by the Minister of National Revenue.

Provided that in respect to motor vehicles valued in excess of one thousand dollars duty shall be payable only on the amount in excess of one thousand dollars.

Provided further that the said machines, vehicles, implements and boats may not be so entered unless brought by the settler on his first arrival, and shall not be sold or otherwise disposed of without payment of duty until after twelve months' actual use in Canada.

AUTOMOBILES IMPORTED BY NON-RESIDENTS FOR PLEASURE PURPOSES ONLY

1. Automobiles imported by non-residents for their personal transportation may be admitted without the payment of duty thereon, under Traveller's Vehicle Permit (Form E. 50) subject to the following regulations:

On arrival at the frontier Customs port of entry, the driver of the automobile shall report at Customs and apply for a permit. The applicant for a permit shall be a non-resident of Canada and a temporary visitor therein. He or she shall be the owner of the automobile, or a member of the immediate family of the owner, who is also a non-resident of Canada, or shall be able to produce written authority from the owner to use such vehicle.

The automobile shall be admissible only when imported for the use of the non-resident permit holder, for the transportation of such non-resident, his family and guests, and such incidental carriage of articles as may be necessary and appropriate to the purposes of the journey, but not to be used for the transportation of persons or articles for hire, nor in any case primarily for the carriage of articles. The use by any other person than the non-resident permit holder shall result in seizure and forfeiture of the vehicle.

No fee is to be collected for Customs attendance at any time in connection with the entry of travellers' automobiles.

2. Temporary Admission, forty-eight Hours, at Ports and Outports on the Frontier Only—In respect of automobiles entering Canada for a stay not exceeding forty-eight hours, when the Collector or Sub-Collector is satisfied that conditions of subsections (a) and (b) of Section 1 are complied with, he is authorized to permit entry upon the owner surrendering his State license card, which will be returned to him on the return journey. In such cases, the use of Form E. 50 may be dispensed with.

3. Traveller's vehicle Permits for a Period not Exceeding Sixty Days—In respect of automobiles entering Canada for a period not exceeding sixty days, the Collector, if satisfied that the conditions stipulated in sub-sections (a) and (b) of Section 1 are complied with, may admit the vehicle without formal entry and may issue a permit on Form E. 50 for a period not exceeding sixty days.

(a) Should a traveller who has been granted a sixty-day permit desire an extension for a further period up to six months from the time of original entry, he may, upon presentation of the permit before the expiry date of same, apply for such extension to any Collector or Sub-Collector of Customs and Excise, who, upon being satisfied as to the bona fides of the use of the automobile may issue a new Form E50 and retain the expired permit for cancellation.

4. Traveller's vehicle Permits for a Period in Excess of Sixty Days—If, on reporting at the Customs frontier port of arrival, the non-resident owner of an automobile desires a traveller's vehicle permit for a period in excess of sixty days, the Collector, if satisfied that the conditions stipulated in sub-sections (a) and (b) of Section 1 are complied with, may admit the vehicle without formal entry and may issue a permit on Form E. 50 for the period designated by the traveller, such period, however, in the first instance, not to exceed six months.

If, through accident, illness or other unusual circumstances, the exportation of the vehicle at the expiration of six months from the date of the original entry cannot be effected, the matter shall be reported to the Deputy Minister of National Revenue for Customs and Excise, Ottawa, who, if satisfied as to the bona fides of the application, may authorize the extension of the traveller's vehicle permit for such additional period of time as may be necessary, and may specify the conditions under which such extension may be granted, and with what security.

COMMERCIAL VEHICLES

5. Carrying Passengers Only.—Automobiles, motor trucks and other motor vehicles may enter Canada and return to the United States without payment of duty on such vehicles when employed in conveying passengers in transit across the frontier, provided they are employed only for through transportation of passengers (either or both ways) between a point or place in the United States and a point or place in Canada. After a careful examination and appraisal has been made of such vehicles to enable the Customs officer to identify them on leaving the Dominion, Commercial Vehicle Permit (Form E. 50-B) shall be issued by the Collector or Sub-Collector on his being furnished with:

(a) a cash deposit equivalent to the duty and taxes payable on the automobile, or

(b) a bond of an approved guarantee company on Form D-3½, or

(c) the special bond of an approved guarantee company on Form D3-A.

On exportation of the vehicle under Customs supervision within a period of thirty days, the cash deposit shall be subject to refund or the bond to cancellation. In default of proof of such exportation within thirty days, the cash deposit shall be taken to account as Customs duty and taxes, and the provisions of the bond enforced.

6. Carrying Goods.—Automobiles, motor trucks and other highway vehicles carrying goods (dutiable or not) for delivery to a point in Canada may be admitted under Commercial Vehicle Permit (Form E. 50-B), under the provisions of Section 5 above if proceeding to an interior port with a load (and under the same Section but without requiring a bond if the goods imported thereby are intended for delivery within the limits of the frontier port of arrival, provided the Collector is satisfied that security is not required), subject to due entry at Customs at the frontier port of arrival of all goods to be discharged in Canada, and the payment of all duties and taxes to which such goods may be liable, failing which, they must be forwarded in bond under manifest by railway to the port of destination. Provided, however, that goods arriving by highway vehicles entitled to entry on Form B 4 or B 4½ as settler's effects, and goods for bona fide exhibitions, or horses for racing purposes eligible for entry on Form B. 18, may be allowed to proceed to interior destinations under Commercial Vehicle Permit for the vehicle, and manifest Form A-8 for the goods, without convoy; the same privilege may be granted in respect of articles for special use, and horses for breeding purposes, if the report and deposit required under Memo D No. 23 (Revised 1942) and No. 5 respectively, are not made at the frontier, in which case the report, and deposit (if any) shall be made at the port of destination.

(a) The exemption from duty prescribed in these Regulations shall not apply to vehicles used by peddlers with goods for sale, in which case duty and taxes are to be collected, having due regard to the provisions of Tariff Item 1215.

(b) The term "local traffic" used in this Regulation, and in the bond forms established in connection therewith, and the term "through transportation" shall not be held to prevent motor vehicles of foreign origin and not duty paid brought in by non-residents of Canada and Used in the International Conveyance of Passengers—from, (i) discharging passengers at different points in Canada on the inward trip, provided such passengers are destined through direct from the point of embarkation to the point of discharge, or (ii) taking on passengers at different points in this country on the outward journey, provided the passengers so laden are destined through direct from the point of lading to a point in a foreign country; This not to include the privilege of taking on passengers at one point in Canada and discharging such passengers at another point therein.

7. Arriving Empty to Obtain Load for Export at Frontier or Inland Port—Automobiles or motor vehicles of foreign origin and not duty paid, being driven into Canada to obtain a load for export, may be admitted under the provisions of Section 6 if proceeding to an interior port for a load, and under the same Section but without requiring a bond if obtaining the load within the limits of the frontier port of arrival, provided the Collector is satisfied that security is not required. Export entires must be required in respect of all goods exported by motor vehicle.

8. Automobiles, trucks and other vehicles exported temporarily by residents of Canada.

(a) Automobiles, trucks and other vehicles of Canadian origin, or duty paid in Canada, whether travelling under their own power or transported by rail or ship, may be exported, temporarily, upon execution of Form E-60. This Form (which may be issued and verified at any Port in Canada) and the relative Provincial Motor Vehicle Permit, are required to be shown to Canadian Customs when departing from or returning to Canada. This means of identification permits the car and equipment to be admitted without payment of duty and taxes, except upon the value of repairs and equipment acquired abroad, as noted in paragraph (b).

(b) If it became necessary, because of an accident, to have repairs made abroad in order to enable the vehicle to continue the tour and return under its own power, the compulsory repairs so made shall be exempt from duty and taxes provided that such exemption from duty and taxes shall not be allowed on repairs exceeding $200 in value, except with the authority of the department. In cases where no accident to the vehicle has occurred, but tire casings or inner tubes, or both, have been replaced in the ordinary course, exemption from duty and taxes may be granted under this regulation on one tire casing and one inner tube only.

(c) If additional equipment is installed and when the Provincial Motor Vehicle Permit expires, a new Identification Form E-60 is required.

9. Vehicles Carrying Two-way Radio Installations, or "Mobile Telephones"—Pending international arrangements whereby the apparatus may be utilized in either country, vehicles equipped with mobile telephones may be permitted entry into Canada under Traveller's Vehicle Permits or Commercial Vehicle Permits as the case may be, provided the installations are secured by Customs seals in such a manner as to prevent operation in Canada. After the installation has been placed under seal and noted on the permit form, the vehicle will be allowed to proceed. On report outwards the seal will be removed by the Customs Officer. Should the seal be found to have been broken or removed, the vehicle will be subject to seizure.

10. Carrying Goods in Transit Only.—Highway vehicles may enter Canada without payment of duty on such vehicles and return to the United States when employed in conveying goods (dutiable or not) in transit in bond through Canada from one point or points in the United States to another point or points therein, under the following regulations:

(a) Motor vehicle operators desiring to become bonded carriers as provided for in these regulations shall make application to the Department of National Revenue, Ottawa, for the privilege.

(b) Upon the application being approved, the applicant shall be required to submit to the Department the bond of a Guarantee Company acceptable to the Dominion Government in approved form as set forth in Appendix I hereof in a penal sum to be fixed by the Minister not to exceed $80,000, the bond to remain in full force and effect for a period of twelve months unless revoked prior to expiration, and shall be subject to renewal thereafter annually with the approval of the Department.

For further regulations, Consult Collector of Customs at nearest port.

NON-RESIDENTS FOR PLEASURE PURPOSES AIRCRAFT IMPORTED TEMPORARILY BY

1. Advance notice of arrival:

(a) Prior to departure for Canada from a foreign airport, advance notice of date and approximate time of arrival shall be given to the proper officer of Customs.

(b) Advice to Customs officers as to time and place of first arrival at a Canadian Customs airport shall be forwarded by mail, telephone or telegraph. If considered advisable, the tourist may request the Canadian Customs officer to furnish a reply, which can then be carried into Canada by the pilot. The importance of this will be realized when one considers the possibility of overflying the intended airport or landing at another place by mistake, or making a forced landing, in all of which cases the reply from the Canadian Customs Officer will assist in establishing the bona fides of the tourist in making his report to Customs or the Royal Canadian Mounted Police, as the case may be. Without such a telegram the tourist's presence at a place where no advance notice of his arrival had been received might render him subject to suspicion.

(c) Advance notice as referred to above will not be necessary if first landing is to be made at Dorval Airport, Montreal, P.Q., at which point 24-hour service is maintained.

2. Formalities on landing:

(a) First alighting of the aircraft shall be made at a Customs airport or airfield designated as such by the Department.

(b) On arrival, the owner or pilot of the aircraft shall report to the proper officer of Customs.

(c) Provided he is satisfied that the aircraft is being imported and will be used by a non-resident for purposes of health and pleasure only and not for trade or profit, the Customs officer may issue Permit Form C-15 for a period not exceeding 3 months.

(d) Should subsequent landings be made in Canada prior to final departure, no report at Customs is necessary provided the owner or pilot is in possession of a valid Form C-15. However, he shall produce the same to Customs or airport officials, or police authorities, on request, as evidence of his right to alight without report at Customs.

3. Formalities on departure:

The owner or pilot of the aircraft shall, prior to the final take-off for departure from Canada, which shall be made from a Customs Airport or Airfield designated as such by the Department, report to the proper officer of Customs and surrender Permit Form C-15.

AIRCRAFT EXPORTED TEMPORARILY TO THE UNITED STATES, ALASKA AND NEWFOUNDLAND BY CANADIAN RESIDENTS FOR PLEASURE PURPOSES

4. In simplifying the requirements for the reporting of pleasure aircraft the Department has waived the necessity of the pilot (or tourist) furnishing written outwards and inwards reports in respect of aircraft under Canadian registry owned by residents of Canada and operated by them for purposes of private flying only and not for the transportation of goods or passengers for gain or hire. Departure must be made from, and the first landing on return must be made at, a Customs airport or airfield of entry and exit.

It is obvious that some means of identification of Canadian machines must be provided in order that the way may be open for their return without being liable to assessment of duty and taxes.

The Department has authorized a special identification form (Form E. 61) for this purpose. Particular attention should be paid to the fact as to whether or not the aircraft is supplied with heater, radio, etc. Note of the serial numbers of the tires, engine and propeller should be taken.

6. Tools of Trade—Usual tools of trade, occupation or employment of a workman, previously used by him, if imported for his personal use and actually in his possession at the time of his arrival in Canada may be admitted free as Travellers' Baggage.

RETURNING RESIDENTS' EXEMPTION

7. Under the provisions of the Customs Tariff, free entry is granted in respect of "goods valued at not more than one hundred dollars included in the baggage accompanying residents of Canada returning from abroad after an absence from Canada of not less than 48 hours and acquired by them for personal or household use or as souvenirs or gifts, but not bought on commission or as an accommodation for other persons or for sale, under regulations prescribed by the Minister, provided that a resident of Canada shall not be entitled to the exemption herein granted within a period of four months from the date of the last exemption allowed, nor shall the exemption be allowed on alcoholic beverages in excess of one quart, or on tobacco in excess of fifty cigars, two hundred cigarettes and two pounds of manufactured tobacco.

The following regulations have been prescribed by the Minister:

(a) All goods in respect of which exemption is claimed shall be declared in writing on Customs Declaration Form E. 24, in duplicate, unless the total value upon which exemption claimed does not exceed $5.

(b) The exemption granted shall be limited to goods actually accompanying a returning resident of Canada and brought in by him as baggage at the time exemption is claimed, and shall not be granted to any person under the age of fourteen years.

(c) A person who has been allowed exemption of less than $100 on a previous occasion shall not be entitled to add to the amount of a subsequent exemption the difference between the amount previously allowed and full exemption.

(d) Goods belonging to one person cannot be included in the exemption claimed by another.

(e) Returning residents must state in their declaration in Canadian currency the price actually paid for all goods purchased abroad in respect of which exemption is claimed, and must state a fair market value for all goods obtained abroad other than by purchase, such as gifts. The purchase price or value stated is not necessarily the value for duty, but must be declared in order to assist the appraising officer in arriving at the correct value for duty. To facilitate appraisal invoices or sales slips should be presented where possible.

(f) If personal effects or goods taken abroad be advanced in value or improved in condition while abroad by reason of repairs or alterations further than that necessarily incidental to wear and use while abroad, the cost or value of such repairs or alterations is subject to duty. Such cost or value may, however, be included within the $100 exemption.

(g) In cases where goods for which exemption is claimed have a combined value of over $100, exemption is to be applied, where practicable, to the goods subject to the highest rates of duty.

(h) All dutiable goods obtained abroad for which exemption cannot be allowed, must be entered at customs and duty paid in the ordinary course.

(i) These regulations shall not be construed to be applicable to any goods the importation of which is prohibited, except as specifically provided for in Tariff Item 703 (b).

REGULATIONS GOVERNING TEMPORARY ADMISSION OF ARTICLES FOR SPECIAL USE

1. (a) The Department has authorized the use of Temporary Admission Report Form E-29, under which certain specified articles may be permitted entry without payment of duty and taxes. Provision is made on the Form for a computation of the amount of duty and taxes properly payable, and a cash deposit of an amount equal to that sum is to be supplied, unless otherwise stipulated. The E-29 must be surrendered by the holder and exportation must be made within six months from the date of entry (unless otherwise provided for), and any cash deposit which may have been furnished will then be subject to refund, otherwise it will be taken to account as duty and taxes. The goods must be identified by a Customs Officer prior to exportation.

(b) Although the furnishing of a deposit may be required by the regulations, any Collector of Customs may, in his discretion, waive its collection if the imported articles entered under Form E-29, are to be used within the limits of his own port, under such precautions or provisions as he may consider necessary to secure the due exportation thereof immediately after such use.

At $1.00 and up to $5.00......½c. per share.
Over $5.00 " " $25.00......1c. " "
" $25.00 " " $50.00......2c. " "
" $50.00 " " $75.00......3c. " "
" $75.00 " " $150.00......4c. " "
" $150.00 4c per share plus 1/10 of 1% of value in excess of $150.00.

Provided that the first delivery by a corporation or company of such shares or bonds in order to effect an issue shall not be subject to the tax.

Rights and Warrants are subject to payment of Dominion stock transfer tax, as of June 28, 1946. The tax is to be figured on the same basis as stocks selling at a similar price.

STOCK TRANSFER TAX, ONTARIO

Upon every change of ownership consequent upon the sale, transfer or assignment of any share of stock of any association, company or corporation, or of any bond, debenture or share of debenture stock made or carried into effect in Ontario, or of any participating interest in the operations or profits of an association, company or corporation, represented by certificates or other instruments of title capable of being sold, transferred or assigned, including syndicate units, mineral deeds, oil royalties, and fixed investment trust shares issued by a trustee and representing an equitable ownership in deposited securities, and upon every order given to a broker in Ontario for the sale, transfer or assignment of any such securities when the order is to be executed outside of Ontario, there shall be imposed, levied and collected a transfer tax. The Scale of Tax is the same as for the Dominion of Canada, shown above.

These stamps and any further information may be obtained from the Treasury Department, Parliament Buildings, Toronto, Ontario

SECURITY TRANSFER TAX, QUEBEC

The Scale of Tax is the same as for the Dominion of Canada, shown above (except on shares of stock selling over $150.00—5c per share), on the following transactions:—

Upon every change of ownership of a security consequent upon the sale, the transfer or the assignment thereof, made in or carried into effect in Quebec Province;

Upon every order given in Quebec for the sale, transfer or assignment of a security, when such order is to be executed outside of Quebec;

Upon every delivery in Quebec of a security payable or transferable to bearer, when the sale, transfer or assignment thereof has been executed outside of Quebec;

Upon every payment made in Quebec, consequent upon the sale, transfer or assignment which has been executed outside of Quebec;

Upon every conversion in Quebec of a security into one which is payable or transferable to bearer;

Upon every transfer or delivery of securities in Quebec, effected for cancellation or exchange purposes; provided this paragraph shall not apply where the exchange of securities issued by one company is made for other securities issued by the same company to the same holder.

Only one of the provisions contained in the foregoing subsection 1 of this section may apply in this Province to the same transaction in securities.

Except as hereinafter provided, if a change of ownership otherwise than by sale is effected, of any share of stock, such change of ownership shall be subject to the tax imposed by this section, computed on the basis of the current market price of the aforesaid share of stock.

When a current market price has not been established by recent sales, or where it is difficult to ascertain the value of the shares of stock, the Provincial Treasurer may fix a price which shall be the price on which the tax shall be paid.

In this section, the term "share of stock" applies to the share of any undivided interest and the share of any participating interest, such as mentioned in sub-paragraph b of subsection 2 of section 1a of this Act.

In respect of transactions in fractional shares, the tax applies pro rata according to the rate exigible in respect of whole shares.

NOT SUBJECT TO THE TAX

Certain transactions not included above are exempt; such as transmissions owing to death, allotment of a first issue, transfers or assignments in connection with the security of a loan, etc.

For further information, apply to the Comptroller of Provincial Revenue, Quebec.

THE CANADIAN ARMY

DEFENCE

The National Defence Act, which came into force January 1, 1923, provided for a Department of National Defence presided over by the Minister of National Defence. The organization and terms of service in the military forces of Canada, collectively called the "Canadian Army" are prescribed in the Militia Act, Chapter 132 Revised Statutes of Canada 1927.

Military Command and Administration of the Army is exercised through five Commands: Western, Prairie, Central, Quebec and Eastern.

Effective 1 January, 1947, six Areas were created within and subordinate to Commands.

ORGANIZATION

The Militia Act provides the Canadian Army shall consist of:

(a) The Active Force consisting of personnel permanently employed and comprising Field units and training, administrative, supply, maintenance and intercommunication elements. The Active Force supersedes the pre-war Permanent Force.

(b) The Reserve Force consisting of personnel not enrolled for continuous service except in an emergency, but liable to undergo annual Military training. The Reserve Force supersedes the pre-war Non-Permanent Active Militia.

(c) The Supplementary Reserve consisting of personnel not enrolled for continuous service except in an emergency and not obligated to undergo annual training except as may be specially ordered. The Supplementary Reserve contains the pre-war lists of Reserve personnel.

(d) The Canadian Officers Training Corps consisting of contingents of officer cadets in Schools, Colleges, Universities and units. The Canadian Officers Training Corps is liable to undergo annual military training.

(e) The Cadet Services of Canada consisting of commissioned officers for the purpose of administration and training of the Royal Canadian Army Cadets. Such officers are liable to perform annual training.

(f) The Reserve Militia

Consists of such units as are named by the Minister. Training is voluntary.

Additional to but not an integral part of the Canadian Army as educational and training establishments are:

(i) Officially authorized cadet corps.
(ii) Officially authorized rifle associations and clubs.
(iii) Such training centres as may be authorized from time to time by the Minister.
(iv) Royal Military College.

ROYAL CANADIAN ARMY CADETS

Colonel-in-Chief: His Majesty the King

Address—Directorate of Military Training, Army Headquarters, Ottawa, Ont.

The Army Cadet organization had its beginnings in the formation of School Cadet Corps during and after the American Civil War, 1861—1866. Such Corps were first authorized by an Amendment to the Militia Act, dated 9th June 1862.

In 1942, the Department of National Defence completed plans to expand the Cadet Movement, regularize the training and, where desirable, to associate cadets with the Reserve Force.

Cadets receive a realistic pre-military training. In addition, great emphasis is placed on the development of better physique and in the study of the future obligations of Cadets as citizens.

The total strength of the R.C. Army Cadets, August, 1948, is 50,000, organized in corps and detachments. The uniform is khaki with red cap flash.

THE ROYAL CANADIAN AIR FORCE

The Royal Canadian Air Force (formed as the C.A.F. in 1920, granted the title "Royal" in 1923, and re-organized as a permanent force on April 1, 1924). Originally consisting of two components, Regular and Auxiliary, it was expanded during the war to include a Special Reserve, a Women's Division, and the Air Cadets. The pre-war strength of the Force was approximately 4,600 officers and men; during the course of the conflict the strength rose to a maximum of over 215,000, including more than 15,000 members of the Women's Division.

The R.C.A.F.'s major task in the War was the development and administration of the British Commonwealth Air Training Plan, under which 131,553 aircrew personnel were trained in the Dominion for the air forces of Britain, Canada, Australia, and New Zealand. Of the graduates of the training schools over 55% were members of the R.C.A.F., 32% of the R.A.F., and the remainder came from the R.A.A.F. and R.N.Z.A.F. The B.C.A.T.P. agreement, which had been signed at Ottawa in December 1939 and extended in June 1942, expired on March 31, 1945.

Between September 1939 and May 1945 units of the home establishment, operating from bases on the Atlantic and Pacific coasts, in Alaska and the Aleutians, Newfoundland, Labrador and Iceland, were engaged in coastal patrol, convoy protection, anti-submarine and fighter duties. Overseas 47 R.C.A.F. squadrons served in the Western European, Mediterranean, Indian and Burmese theatres. Fourteen heavy bomber squadrons comprised No. 6 R.C.A.F. Group in Bomber Command; another was in the Pathfinder Force. Twenty day fighter, fighter-reconnaissance, fighter-bomber, night fighter and intruder squadrons fought over Western Europe as components of the 2nd Tactical Air Force and Fighter Command. Another day fighter squadron flew with the Desert Air Force in its campaigns from Egypt to Italy. In Coastal Command there were five R.C.A.F. units, including one based in Ceylon. Three transport squadrons carried troops and supplies in Western Europe and Burma, while three A.O.P. units worked with the Canadian Army in the Netherlands and Germany during the last weeks of the war. In addition to the personnel of these squadrons there were many thousands of R.C.A.F. aircrew and groundcrew who served with R.A.F. units overseas. Plans for the Force's participation in the "second phase" against Japan—in addition to the two transport squadrons and R.C.A.F. personnel serving in the Far East—were cut short by the termination of hostilities.

For a time the R.C.A.F. contributed a number of squadrons for the British Air Forces of Occupation in Germany and for transport work. The last of these was disbanded in June 1946.

WOMEN'S DIVISION

The Women's Division of the R.C.A.F. which was organized in July 1941, enlisted throughout the war more than 17,000 women who were trained in approximately 40 different trades and released thousands of men for other duties. About 1500 W.D.'s saw service overseas. The first members of any of the Canadian women's forces to arrive in Britain were a draft from the R.C.A.F. Women's Division in 1942.

It is not proposed to retain W.D.'s in the peacetime Force. The Women's Division was completely demobilized by the end of 1946.

PERMANENT FORCE

The Force is divided into four Commands. North West Air Command and Central Air Command are organized to administer and train forces within their specific boundaries. Maintenance Command, which was organized in August 1945, directs and co-ordinates equipment, supply, aero engineering, construction engineering and aeronautical inspection throughout the Force. Air Transport Command directs and supervises the operation of R.C.A.F. transport and R.C.A.F. photography in accordance with Air Force headquarters policy. No. 10 Group supervises and controls the functional activities of such units specifically designated as forming part of the Group, as directed by the Air Officer Commanding, Central Air Command. Nos. 11 and 12 Groups have the same function as No. 10 Group but come under the direction of the Air Officer Commanding, North West Air Command.

ROYAL CANADIAN AIR CADETS

The Air Cadet League of Canada was formed in November, 1940, as a voluntary civilian organization to foster and administer Air Cadets throughout Canada. The training programme for this organization was the responsibility of the R.C.A.F. and, together with the Air Cadet League, it encouraged and directed the airmindedness of Canadian youth and provided a preliminary training for potential members of the R.C.A.F. Regular and Reserve Forces. The Air Cadets became a component of the R.C.A.F. in April, 1943, and by Order in Council were renamed the Royal Canadian Air Cadets in July, 1946.

During the war, approximately 380 Squadrons were formed with a total membership of about 30,000. These numbers have been reduced and the Air Cadets are now on a peacetime basis with 200 Squadrons and 15,000 Cadets. A detailed and comprehensive syllabus of training has been prepared to provide Canadian youth with a basic education in aviation and other closely associated subjects which will better fit them for peacetime pursuits.

THE ROYAL CANADIAN NAVY

The strength of the Canadian Naval forces as of 31st August, 1939 was 352 officers, 3446 ratings, made up as follows:

	Officers	Men
R.C.N.	131	1643
R.C.N.R.	66	196
R.C.N.R. (Fisherman's Reserve)	40	154
R.C.N.V.R.	115	1453

At the peak of the war, the strength of the Canadian Navy was 95,705 with 378 warships and over 400 vessels of other types.

Components of the Naval Forces—The Naval Forces comprise the following components:

	Officers	Untd. Cadets	Men	Total
R.C.N. (Perm't Force)	1099	....	6046	7145
R.C.N. (Reserve)	735	897	2072	3704

To convert dollars into sterling, take the pounds opposite the nearest amount below the dollars to be converted; the balance will then be found in the s.d. table.

As an example— $443.39 = £109:15:0

Nearest amount below = $440.36 = £109: 0: 0
balance = 3.03 = 15: 0
$443.39 = £109:15: 0

Amounts of 10 times or 100 times those given in table may be conveniently calculated by moving decimal point one or two places to the right.

As an example—to convert £840:0:0 to $,—£84:0:0 is $339 36; move decimal 1 place to right = $3,393.60.

Camilleri, O.B.E., Secretary, Maltese Imperial Government.

Last general election was held in October 1947.

By Letters Patent dated September 5, 1947, Responsible Government was re-established in Malta and the new Legislative Assembly was opened by His Royal Highness The Duke of Gloucester on November 10, 1947. The Maltese Legislature may not pass laws touching the public safety or defence of His Majesty's dominions and the general interests of British subjects outside Malta. In addition to this general reservation certain subjects are specifically withheld from the Legislature's competence. The principal subjects so reserved are matters dealing with the defence of the Island, and naval, military or air force matters generally, aliens, immigration, currency and treaties and relations with foreign states except insofar as it may be necessary for laws to be made in Malta to enable effect to be given to any treaty extending to Malta. Laws dealing with "reserved matters" may be made by the Governor subject to His Majesty's approval, or by Order in Council.

The Governor is assisted by two Councils, the Executive Council, consisting of the Cabinet, and the Nominated Council, consisting of the Lieutenant-Governor, the Legal Secretary, (who are ex officio members) and three officers chosen from the Navy, Army and Air Force. There is a Privy Council which consists of the members of the Executive Council and the members of the Nominated Council and the Governor may, as occasion may require, appoint a Joint Committee of the Privy Council consisting of three members of the Executive Council, nominated by the Prime Minister and three members of the Nominated Council selected by the Governor.

NEWFOUNDLAND

TERMS OF UNION

Terms of union between Canada and Newfoundland formed the subject of an agreement signed in Ottawa on December 11, 1948, subject to the approval of the Newfoundland government and the Canadian parliament. Ratification is expected to be effective March 31, 1949.

Under the terms of this agreement, the sterling debt of Newfoundland (amounting to approximately $63,000,000) will be assumed by the Dominion of Canada. Newfoundland's surplus as of the date of union will be retained by her when she achieves Provincial status in the Canadian Federation, subject to the proviso that one-third of this surplus will be devoted to the maintenance and improvement of public services, and two thirds to the development of resources and provision or extension of public services. The Dominion Government undertakes to pay an annual subsidy of $180,000 plus a per capita subsidy of 80 cents, plus an additional special annual subsidy of $1,100,000. In the event of a tax agreement being concluded between the Federal Government and the Province of Newfoundland, the subsidies will be included in the payments under such an agreement. It is further stipulated that a Royal Commission is to be appointed within 8 years of the date of union for the purpose of reviewing the financial position of Newfoundland and of making recommendations relating to its financial relations with the Dominion.

It is proposed that Newfoundland be granted six seats in the Senate and seven seats in the House of Commons. The Newfoundland Fisheries Board will continue to administer all Newfoundland Fisheries laws for a period of five years, administrative costs being borne by the Dominion.

Provisions are also contained in the agreement for union covering income taxes, corporation taxes, unemployment insurance, social services, natural resources, and Civil Servants.

The Dominion Government will assume control of Newfoundland railways and steamship lines, postal and publicly owned tele-communication facilities, civil aviation, customs and excise, defence, lighthouses, etc., and undertakes to provide other public services of the type offered at the date of union to the people of other Provinces.
